November 2005

Thanks to all contributors to this issue:

Jeanne Anderson, Wendy Anderson, Jody Anderson, Ann Cox, Helen Hendrickson, Janis Hooey, Shawn Padden, Todd Lindahl, Sherry Rovig and Mary Ann Sironen.

Thanks to residents Bob and Brenda Sundstrom (BB&K) who provided the color (no cost to the Township) to dress up this issue.

Thanks too, to Kevin Olson and Coop Light and Power for providing high-speed wireless internet connection (without cost to the Township) for our Town Hall and Police Department. This helps greatly since increasing amounts of Township work involves internet connection to the State, County and other agencies. It also permits the Police Department to be better connected to law enforcement facilities.

Note: If you would be willing to provide a masthead drawing, please call the editor (525-0103).

Your copy of “Welcome to Duluth Township” A Guide to Land Use and Living in Duluth Township

Enclosed you will find a new Township brochure produced by our Planning Commission using grant funds. Many of you will recall that the resident Steering Committee that worked on our new Zoning Ordinance agreed that education should be used wherever possible to promote good land use practices and encourage compliance with our land use ordinance. This booklet is a key step in this direction. It represents a lot of work by our Planning Commission. A copy of the brochure is included in this Newsletter. It will also be handed out at the Town Hall to people who request a land use permit application.

3rd ANNUAL HARVEST DINNER REPORT

Sherry Rovig

A gorgeous day, a great crew, foot stompin' music, and homemade food were the winning recipe for this year's Harvest Dinner fundraiser for the volunteer Fire Department and First Responders. Chief Barry Lampi, along with Bob Engelson handed out the many wonderful door prizes contributed by: The New Scenic Café, Antique Collectibles, Pat Healy, Annie Utyro, Joann Norgren, Pat Halvorson, Camp Bark in the Dark, and Clifton Fire Dept. Janet Lampi contributed the full candy jars for the guessing contest. Louisa and Bob Fabbro had the kitchen crew dancing while they played their tunes, and the Madison brothers, along with Samantha Gibb Roff on vocals had more than a few folks singing along to familiar songs. So many people have generously donated their time, supplies, produce, door prizes, talents, and DESSERTS! This has become a great community event and we thank everyone for their support.

Proceeds from this fundraiser along with the calendar advertising will supplement grant funding for new high pressure air packs.

Anyone who is interested in helping with auxiliary activities can contact: Jody Anderson at 525-4971 or Sherry Rovig at 525-0489.

Special thanks to the kitchen crew: Jody Anderson, Barb Crow, Pat Halvorson, Joann Norgren, and Sherry Rovig.

Duluth/North Shore Sanitary District

Mary Ann Sironen

There are 16 hook ups left to make the D/NSSD collection system complete and meet the construction timeline. Of these 16, five are grinder pumps that must be put into solid rock at the eastern end of the system so this last portion is going slowly but Frontier Pipeline expects to finish this year. The agreement with the Knife River/Larsmont to allow for that sanitary district's flow to go through the D/NSSD main line has been finalized thanks to good cooperation and hard work between the two boards.

The big Rain Event in September showed the D/NSSD detention tank to be very effective in holding back the D/NSSD flow from the City of Duluth sewer system. Much work, considerable funds (in the form of a grant from the Army Corps of Engineers) and careful engineering went into planning/building this holding tank so D/NSSD wouldn't be contributing to any overflows in Duluth.

At their October meeting the Board approved a 2006 budget and discussed the future cash flow of an operating system. Electronic payment is now an option for customers. After a period of time and notification to offending customers, unpaid sewer bills will be added to property taxes.

Interaction with Lakewood and Duluth Township Planning and Zoning committees has been initiated so both those agencies and D/NSSD can keep track of new construction plans. An application process to license private contractors to work within the D/NSSD system has been created.

Eric Appelwick, NTS project superintendent, and his assistant, Ty Hybel are responding to customer concerns and alarms from grinder pumps. Three of the four emergency calls in September were found to be problems within individual homes. Homeowners are asked to investigate any internal problems before calling out NTS... but Eric and Ty are always available for help.

Full information and minutes of the D/NSSD Board meeting are on the website: www.dnssd.org.

The D/NSSD Board of Managers meets monthly, on the 2nd Wednesday at 7am in French River Lutheran Church. The next meeting is October 9th.
The public is welcome.

Clifton Volunteer Fire Department

Barry Lampi, Fire Chief

Be safe, keep your chimney flu clean – be fire safe.

Our Fire Department has received notification that it will receive a grant of $90,186 which will be used for turnout gear and new high pressure airpacks and compressor for our volunteer firefighters.

The 3rd Annual Harvest Dinner, a benefit sponsored by our Fire Department and First Responders, was a success (see article).

The 2006 Clifton Fire Department calendar is being prepared. The calendar is a project of our Fire Department and First Responders and is distributed free to Township households. The fire scene below is of a night time fire the Department recently handled.

High Speed Internet Update

Kevin Olson, Coop Light and Power, reported that wireless, high speed internet service is available throughout the Township except for "shadow" areas in on Greenwood Road and along part of McQuade Road. These areas will be addressed later. Call Kevin if you are interested in this service (834-2226).

Citizens Group Interested in Housing for Duluth Township Seniors

Some Duluth Township residents are meeting each month to discuss and plan for housing options for seniors in the Township. The last meeting reported on a questionnaire about options and interest among Homesteader seniors. At the October 17th meeting Ron Edmond discussed some examples of small community-centered senior housing.

The regular meeting is the third Monday at 7-m in the Town Hall. If you are interested, please attend. For information, contact Helen Hendrickson at 525-4154.

Sign-up to Run for Town Supervisor

Those who want to be on the ballot to run for Town Supervisor must file with the Town Clerk between December 27th and the deadline, January 10th (still a $2 fee!). The election is for one opening on the Board. The election is held on the Annual Town Meeting day, March 14th. The Annual Town meeting is at 7:15pm that day.

Annual Township Feedback Survey

The January Newsletter will again include an anonymous survey seeking feedback from Township residents. In the past it has been helpful to have responses to current issues and to provide citizen suggestions and input for the Town Board and committees. Senior housing is likely to be one topic this time. See our web site for results of past surveys.

If you have suggestions of topics to include, please send an email or note to the editor.

Public Information Meeting for a Planned Unit Development on Stoney Point

Watch our posting places for the announcement of an Open House on a development that is currently being planned for the western side of Stoney Point.

These information meetings are a first step for PUDs under our new Zoning Ordinance. They provide a developer and citizens a chance to present early information and discuss plans in an informal context. An official public hearing occurs later in the permitting process.

Posting sites for the Open House are at the Town Hall, the Recycling Shed, Community Center (NSCS), the Scenic Café and in the Duluth News Tribune.

Water storage tanks at the Community Center (for sprinkler and Fire Department use) will be tabled until September. Town Hall: Susan Meredith will help Bob Abrahamson in Town Hall maintenance. Planning: The Guide is ready and will be discussed by the Board on August 17th. Probable cost to research the Adult Use ordinance was approved ($1000). Minor changes to the new Zoning Ordinance were approved. The County scheduled a meeting to conform to some changes we suggested.

The Zoning ordinance was enacted effective August 12, 2005. Paper copies will be available for $20 and a CD copy is $5. It will also be on our web site.

Sale of Tax Forfeit land was discussed. County officials had been invited to discuss their plans but what we were told appears to be quite different from their current actions. A letter will be drafted expressing Township concerns. Road and Bridge: Qwest will put a cable on the north side of Shilhon Road. Cemetery: Maps are incorrect.

A motion was made to pay $750 for membership in the North Shore Management Board.

change in the County zoning ordinance that would conform to our new Zoning Ordinance. Sue Lawson, Wayne Dahlberg and Steve Dahl will attend. Treasurer report: $57,721.29 deposits, $48,253.89 expenses for a balance of $527,505.25. Janet Johansen recommended purchasing a 12 month certificate of deposit for $50,000. Police: The Board thanked them for progress on the junk car ordinance clean-up project. Community Center: The water storage tank project is proceeding. Solar panels are going up (with grant funds). Funds may have to be borrowed from the Capital Expense account to help pay for the Community Center sprinkler system. Planning: The Guide has been printed. Supervisor Cook will raise the need to replace the South Recycling shed to the next McQuade Road meeting. The Township will write a letter formally requesting that the DNR place the shed on the site. Road and Bridge: Greenwood Road has had some added gravel but more will be needed in 2006. Hagglund Construction will dump sand for use at the Town Hall this winter. Cemetery: Records will be updated. One plot can contain a full burial and two cremations. It was suggested that a guide pamphlet be prepared. Cemetery building windows continue to be broken. The original survey marker was located.

Commercial Fishing Part I -- The Fur Trade

Todd Lindahl

Commercial fishing got its start on the north shore when the American Fur Company became involved in 1834. The fur trade had been in decline for many years and the company looked for a new source of income to bolster its shrinking profits. Fishing stations were set up at intervals along the north shore to use as bases of operation. From these gathering points, the fish were taken to the Fond du Lac post to be cleaned and processed for shipment to the eastern markets. Two other important processing posts were located at Grand Portage and La Pointe. At each of these three posts fish were packed into barrels and loaded onto one of the Fur Company schooners for transport to Sault Ste. Marie. There were no locks in these days, so the schooners unloaded their cargo of fish and then headed back up the lake for the next shipment. As many as 5,000 barrels of fish were moved eastward from Lake Superior each year during this period. On one of these trips in April 1838, the American Fur Company schooner Madeline left La Pointe heading to Fond du Lac. Once they were out in the open lake, the captain noticed pack ice blowing in on them from the east. These Fur Company schooners were not built for speed and it was soon evident that the ice was gaining on them. The captain angled across the lake in a desperate attempt to get in behind the island at Knife River or into the flow of water that is discharged by the stream. Just short of safety, the vessel was grasped by the icy hand of Lake Superior and held fast. During the night the lake froze again allowing the crew to move the cargo and most of the rigging to shore. After daylight the power of the moving ice crushed the helpless Madeline and scattered debris all the way from Knife River to Minnesota Point. This forced the captain and crew to walk through the woods to reach Fond du Lac. The disaster, which happened adjacent to the Duluth Township line, was the first total loss American shipwreck on Lake Superior. It was only the second shipwreck up to that point on the lake, but neither would it be the last. In 1844 a sister Fur Company schooner, the 111-ton John Jacob Astor, was wrecked at Copper Harbor on the south shore. In 1837 there was a financial panic in the U.S. and this caused the American Fur Company to fail in 1842. The Missouri Fur Company took over the Fond du Lac operation in that year and continued on until 1847. From 1847 to 1854 there was practically no activity anywhere along the north shore. It seemed as though the region had returned to a primeval existence. This was only temporary however as big changes were soon to come.
